THREE-YEAR-OLD FALLS INTO CAN OF HOT LARD AND DIES OF BURNS

First and second degree burns to practically his entire body proved fatal to Charles Alfred Pitzer, three-year nine-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1, after the youngster had fallen into a 10-gallon can of hot lard while his parents and great-grandfather, George L. Culp, Biglerville R. 1, were butchering at their home Thursday.

A lid was loosely placed on the can of the recently rendered lard and the child attempted to sit on the lid with the result he fell into the lard. Only his head remained above the hot liquid.

The youngster was rushed to the Warner Hospital and was admitted in a critical condition at 12:30 p.m. Death took place at 6:45 p.m.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, investigated and said death was due to first and second degree burns of the whole body with the exception of the face and the left leg below the knee. He said no inquest would be held.

Surviving the youngsters are his parents; a younger brother, Jerry; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Stewart Shinn, Gettysburg; paternal grandfather, Elmer A. Snider, Biglerville; great-grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1, and great-grandfather, George L. Culp, Biglerville R. 1.

Correct Mistakes In Lincoln Cast

The Western Maryland Railway Co. today corrected several mistakes that it said were inadvertently made in its listing of the cast for the Lincoln pageant Saturday.

The name of John Withrow, Gettysburg R. 2, was added to those furnishing old vehicles for the procession. Mr. Withrow is supplying a Conestoga wagon and horses.

The list should have contained the name of Granville Miller, Littlestown R. 2, who is supplying two horses. He was listed as Granville Williams.

The name of Nancy Shields was omitted from the cast among the townswomen and girls taking part.

William Frailey, Emmitsburg, collector of old vehicles, is supplying four wagons.

CAR CRASHES HOTEL PILLAR; TWO INJURED

A large pillar of the portico of the Hotel Gettysburg was demolished at 2:45 o'clock this morning when the brakes on an automobile rounding Lincoln Square to park in front of the hotel failed to hold, according to borough police.

Two persons, the driver of the automobile, Anthony Bosco, Ashland, Pa., and a passenger, Miss Jean Moser, 228 Baltimore St., were slightly injured.

Bosco was removed to the lobby of the hotel and then taken by ambulance to the Warner Hospital. He suffered abrasions of both knees and possible abdominal injuries. Miss Moser complained of head pains.

Pays $10 Fine

Bosco was charged by borough police with reckless driving. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Bashore and paid a fine of $10 and costs.

According to police, Bosco's automobile struck another car parked in front of the hotel when his brakes failed to hold, grazed a newly-set parking meter post, jumped the curb, demolished the westernmost pillar, which fell in shattered lengths around the car, and struck the front of the hotel.

The parked car, police said, was owned by Paul C. Twigg, Cumberland, Md.

Install Steel Post

Damage to the pillar, front of the hotel and to the Twigg car was estimated by police in excess of $500. The demolishing of the hollow colonnade dislodged quantities of grass and hay which had been carried inside by birds for nests.

Henry M. Scharf, manager of the hotel, said a steel post will be placed temporarily to replace the demolished pillar. The post will be "camouflaged" with bunting similar to that which decorates the remainder of the hotel facade for Saturday's Lincoln pageant.

The picture shows the color guard, three chiefs and firemen during a brief halt in the parade on Wyoming Ave. Firemen who carried the large "Gettysburg" banner, and the Blue and Gray Band, which won first prize for the best band in the line of march, are not shown.

CITIZENS WRITE DIRECTORS ON KINDERGARTEN

A "group of interested citizens" today addressed an open letter to the members of the Gettysburg School Board urging delay on final action on the new elementary building plans until the public has an opportunity to express itself on the question of kindergarten quarters in the new structure.

The board on Monday evening voted against kindergarten rooms in the plans for the new structure. The letter follows:

An open letter to the members of the Gettysburg School Board:

Dear Sirs:

We read with much interest the recent account of the school board regarding plans for the construction of new elementary school buildings.

We wish to commend the board for its foresight in providing these fine, modern buildings, including facilities for special education.

But we are deeply concerned over the rejection of the provisions for a kindergarten as originally recommended in the plans. Gettysburg has long awaited new elementary school buildings. Now that these plans are to become a reality it is not advisable to preclude the passing of final plans eliminating a kindergarten until public opinion, which you are seeking, has had an opportunity to be expressed.

We urge you, the members of the board, to defer final action until this public opinion is forthcoming.

U. S. Navy Launches Rockets From Balloons Near N. Pole

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy announced last night that it has launched rockets from giant balloons, high above the north geomagnetic pole, and sent them to altitudes of about 40 miles—literally above the top of the world.

The instrument-laden balloons, tall as ten-story buildings, were released from the Coast Guard icebreaker Eastward in Baffin Bay, west of northern Greenland.

The soaring rockets radioed back cosmic radiation measurements at the one point on the globe where the earth's magnetic field has the least influence on incoming cosmic ray particles.

It will take scientists months to tabulate and interpret the information obtained.

"This (40 miles) is the greatest height known to have been reached in these latitudes," the Navy said.

The Navy also sent photographic "nuclear emulsion" plates aboard the balloons to altitudes of about 90,000 feet, or 17 miles.

The valuable photographic plates and equipment from two of the balloons were seen to parachute safely to earth. One set landed on Ellesmere Island west of Greenland, and the other on the Greenland icecap within ten miles of the geomagnetic pole.

"The snowmelters during the last of August and early September prevented Navy helicopters from recovering the equipment," the Navy said.

"Dr. Marcel Schein of the University of Chicago has offered a reward of $100 for the return of this equipment and there is some hope that it may be recovered by Greenlanders or Eskimos next spring."

Fourteen balloons, ranging in diameter from 5 to more than 100 feet, were launched from a flight deck only 60 feet square. It was the first time this has been done from a vessel as small as an icebreaker.

Scouts To Hand Out 38,000 Programs

Boy Scout Field Executive Charles Harris today called for 200 Boy Scouts to help distribute 38,000 copies of the Lincoln pageant program Saturday afternoon and assist police in the handling of crowds at several points including the Western Maryland station, the Wills House and points along the parade route.

Mr. Harris asked the scouts from all troops of the Black Walnut (Adams County) district to meet him at the Presbyterian Church here Saturday afternoon at 12:15 o'clock.

TOWN PARKING RESTRICTED FOR LINCOLN FETE

Parking restrictions to be in force Saturday during the pageant, "Mr. Lincoln Goes To Gettysburg," were announced today, following a conference Thursday afternoon with borough, state and Western Maryland Railway police.

All restrictions will be in effect from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

No parking will be allowed on Baltimore St. from Lincoln Square to the National Cemetery.

No parking in Lincoln Square, which will be cleared entirely for the pageant and the spectators.

No parking on York St. from Lincoln Square to Stratton St., plus four spaces at St. James Church, cleared for the formation of the parade.

Other Regulations

No parking on Carlisle St. from Lincoln Square to the Western Maryland Railroad, cleared for spectators and the pageant.

No parking on Carlisle St. from the railroad to Stevens St., cleared for parking of buses.

No parking on E. Middle St. from Baltimore St. to S. Stratton St., cleared for parking of Sons of Union Veterans in uniform.

Present parking restrictions on Railroad St. from Carlisle to N. Washington Sts., N. Stratton from York to Railroad and on the west side of N. Washington St. from Chambersburg St. to Lincoln Ave. will be rigidly enforced, Burgess Weaver said.

Detouring of traffic will be in charge of Pennsylvania State Police, Lt. Alfred Verbecken commanding.

WILL INSTALL RADIOS SOON IN FIRE ENGINES

Installation of two-way radios in fire trucks throughout the county is expected to begin next week, William G. Weaver, head of Civil Defense for the county, said today.

The two-way radio sets and their aerials have arrived at the Gettysburg Fire House. A representative of the Radio Corporation of America is to arrive here, probably next week, to begin the job of installing the sets in more than 20 fire engines owned by companies throughout the county.

All of the engines will be brought to Gettysburg and installation will be made at the local fire engine house. Weaver said when the actual date of arrival of the RCA representative is determined, a schedule will be made out for the various fire companies to send their equipment to the local fire house.

Because it takes about a day to install the equipment, either Gettysburg fire trucks will be dispatched to companies having only one engine while their engine is here having its radio installed, or arrangements will be made with some nearby fire company to "cover" for the absent fire engine. It was expected today that Gettysburg fire engines would have to be sent to only about four companies, to be in readiness in case of fire during the absence of the engines of those companies.

When installation is completed, every fire company in the county will be able to communicate with each other and with the central radio station at the fire house here. The network will be used for Civil Defense emergencies or for fire emergencies in the future.

The local fire engine house has also become the depository for new "heads" to be placed on parking meters in the central portion of the town. The meters have arrived, but no word has been received of the date of arrival of a company expert to help install the new meters.

Bequeaths $100 To Church Cemetery

The will of John W. McIlhenry, late of Gettysburg, has been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. A bequest of $100 for the Great Conewago Presbyterian Cemetery is contained in the will which divides the remainder of the $34,150 estate among children and grandchildren. John William McIlhenry Jr. of Arlington, Va., is executor of the estate.

Gettysburg Dons Its Finest Raiment For Presentation Of Lincoln Pageant On Saturday

Gettysburg today awaited in eager expectancy the presentation Saturday afternoon of the Western Maryland Railway Company's re-enactment of President Lincoln's 1863 visit to Gettysburg for the dedication of the National Cemetery, and was prepared for the entertainment of thousands of visitors. Estimates of the number of people who will come here for "Mr. Lincoln Goes To Gettysburg" have been variously estimated, some as high as 50,000.

The town began to assume a gala holiday appearance. Bunting and flags deck many of the buildings in the downtown area. The placing of these decorations began on Thursday and continued today. Borough employees, placed the borough "streamers" on Carlisle St., Lincoln Square and Baltimore St., after directors and assistants of the pageant had first decided not to use them.

The first decision was reached because the flags contain 48 stars, several more than were on the field of the flag in 1863. Later it was decided that this departure from strict adherence to historical background could be overlooked. The difference would not be too noticeable, it was decided.

Schedule Of Pageant

The Saturday pageant schedule will be as follows:

1:30 p.m., Presentation begins at the Western Maryland Railway station, Carlisle St., followed by the arrival of the Lincoln Train.

1:45 p.m., Dramatic scenes at the Wills House in Lincoln Square.

2:10 p.m., Procession moves from Lincoln Square by way of Baltimore St. to the National Military Cemetery.

2:40 p.m., Re-enactment of the dedication program of November 19, 1863, begins at the cemetery.

3:10 p.m., Conclusion of the presentation.

From 10 a.m. Saturday until 6 p.m. all traffic on the Hanover-Gettysburg-Highfield branch of the Western Maryland will be suspended except for passenger trains. A special train will bring hundreds of guests here from Baltimore and Washington and points along the route.

Board Chairman Here

Eugene Williams, chairman of the board of directors of the Western Maryland, was an interested spectator at the final rehearsal of the entire cast of the production Thursday night. Charles A. Zarfos, vice president of the railway, and Mrs. Zarfos, and other officials were also present.

Ben Grauer, NBC radio announcer, who will give the narration, with Joseph Rosensteel, Gettysburg, will arrive in Gettysburg tonight. Another arrival tonight will be Mrs. Ray Middleton, wife of the pageant portrayal of Lincoln.

Each family participating in the pageant was given a guest card entitling one person to a seat in the cemetery for the dedication program. Tickets must be presented at the Taneytown entrance to the cemetery.

Members of the cast were given cards with the word "cast" to identify them in passing through police lines Saturday morning to their dressing rooms, the Hotel Gettysburg annex for the women and the West

Red Artillery Fire Shields New Drive On Sniper Ridge

By STAN CARTER

SEOUL (AP)—Nearly 1,000 Chinese troops assaulted Sniper Ridge tonight on the Central Korean Front tonight under Red artillery fire so intense the South Korean defenders could not measure it.

The Chinese and ROKs closed in a grenade-throwing, hand-to-hand fight for Pinpoint Hill, center peak on Sniper Ridge northwest of Kumhwa.

Late reports said the desperately-battling ROKs still held control of Pinpoint.

But to the west, South Korean Ninth Division troops pulled back off Iron Horse Hill at dark after fighting Chinese throughout the afternoon.

Communist dead littered the frost-whitened battlefields and Red casualties mounted to record 1952 totals. In the bloody week ended Tuesday, the U. S. Eighth Army estimated the Communists lost 10,186 soldiers. The total—highest since last November—included 5,868 killed, 4,258 wounded and 60 captured.

Foe Loses 12,653

The ROK Ninth Division today reported it inflicted a staggering

Close Cemetery To Traffic For Lincoln Pageant

The National Cemetery will be closed to all automobile traffic from 11:15 a.m. Saturday until one hour after the conclusion of the pageant and re-enactment in the cemetery of the 1863 dedication scene and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, John C. W. Riddle, superintendent, announced today.

The gates of the cemetery on Baltimore St. and on the Taneytown Rd. will be closed promptly at 11:15 a.m. An hour will be allowed after the pageant ends to give traffic an opportunity to move and state police to clear the highways before visitors may drive their cars through the cemetery, Superintendent Riddle said.

Visitors will be allowed to go through the cemetery on foot, but the dedication site will be roped off, and park guards, state police and Boy Scouts will patrol the area and keep the crowds back.

Furniture Men On Strike: A disputed number of workers at the Gettysburg and Reaser Furniture and the Gettysburg Panel Company plants dropped their tools and walked out of the plants Monday morning at 8 o'clock on a strike for higher wages, shorter hours and better working conditions at the call of officers of the Local Woodworkers' Union 464, designated by the factorymen on September 22 as their bargaining agency.

At noon picket lines were formed about the three plants and the loyal workers were booted as they left the shops and as they returned to their labors at 1 o'clock.

At the furniture company offices it was stated that records show that fewer than 400 employees struck and that "more than 300 remained at work."

Borough police were on hand Monday morning, but there was no disorder.

Bream Employees Mark 5th Anniversary: The employees of the Glenn L. Bream, Inc., and their wives and special guests attended an annual party Tuesday evening at Hershey Park, west of here, marking the fifth anniversary of the business concern. More than 40 persons attended with Mr. Bream as their host. Wingert's Sylvesters, a Chambersburg orchestra, provided music and entertainment.

Yankees Defeat Giants: NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—What baseball needs is a program to plow under every second or third Yankee and give the game back to the common players.

The Giants, home-runned to death, 4-2, in the fifth and final game of the World Series Sunday at the Polo Grounds, would stuff the ball box.

Today's Talk

QUOTATIONS

You who have read these brief talks from day to day, note that I continually quote from people who have said wise or inspiring things. I do it for at least two reasons. One is that it helps to add to the flavor of the talk, like raisins in did in mother's pies, puddings and cakes. They help to "gem" a thought.

The other reason for my many quotations is that I hope to acquaint my readers with authors who have been a joy and inspiration to me in my reading, and I like to pass what has pleased me to others. I have, again and again, been so intrigued by a wise saying that I have sought out the author that I might learn more about him, or her.

Many of these quotations I long ago committed to memory and so have them handy for use when I think they will help fit into a thought. I look upon striking thoughts as footprints that great minds leave behind them. People who never read a line from the poet Pope are familiar with his famous statement that "the proper study of mankind is man."

Shakespeare and the Bible are probably quoted more than any other books. They are books that every school boy or girl, sooner or later, quotes from. Thoreau was not popular in his day. Few bought his first book, but after he died, interest in his great book "Walden" soon attracted the attention of the intellectual world, and edition after edition has been published, as well as books about Thoreau. A dozen and more of his writings have since been published, and they are full of great quotable thoughts.

The late President Roosevelt made famous the line "nothing is so much to be feared as fear itself." This was borrowed from Thoreau and can be found in his Journal under the date of September 7th, 1851. The phrase "Forgotten Man" was also popularized by Roosevelt, but Professor William Graham Sumner, of Yale University, gave a most stimulating lecture under this title before the Brooklyn Historical Society, Jan. 30th, 1883—but his "forgotten man" was the "white collar" gentleman!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Joy-Of-Reading."

Just Folks

CAMPAIGN TIME

The candidates are at it, tooth and nail.
And they're sending cards and pamphlets by the mail.
Every night they disagree
On the radio and TV,
And they're kissing babies all along the trail.

Nation wide they both are making whistle-stops,
Telling farmers what they'll do about their crops.
Both have sore and husky throats,
Due to shouting pleas for votes.
But of all the rights of freedom,
this is tops.

This is something they can't do in tyrant lands,
Where the people must obey one man's commands.
Such campaigns can only be in a country that is free,
Where the polling booth for all wide open stands.

So I hail the difference now dividing men,
For I'm glad that it can happen now and then,
Since when silenced is the din,
After all the votes are in,
We shall be a land united once again.

GRAMMER SAYS HE "MADE UP" MURDER STORY

BALTIMORE (AP)—George Edward Grammer testified Thursday he made up a story to tell police about his wife's strange death because he was tired of their questioning and wanted to go home.

Haggard and looking older than his 35 years, the New York office manager stepped to the stand at the start of the third day of testimony in his murder trial.

He told about two days of questioning, Aug. 30 and 31, which led up to the state's accusing him of beating his pretty 33-year-old wife to death and trying to make it look like she died in an automobile smashup.

Wanted An Attorney
The state says he wanted to be free to marry a 28-year-old Canadian secretary who worked at United Nations headquarters, with whom he was "hopelessly in love."

Grammer said he wanted to see his brother and contact an attorney while he was being questioned.

Under cross-examination he said he made this request of policemen and did not ask the two prosecutors who questioned him.

His testimony was restricted to the circumstances of his arrest and questioning by investigators—up to the time the state says he first made an admission about his wife's death.

His attorney, Anthony S. Federico, attempted to show he was improperly induced to answer questions.

TAKE STEPS TO CLEAN RIVER
HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Health Department today studied a group of recommendations aimed at eliminating acid mine water from the West Branch of the Susquehanna River.

The recommendations were presented to Secretary Russell E. Teague at a meeting yesterday with a coal pollution committee from Williamsport.

J. H. Bender, chairman of the committee, said pollution this year—the first in four years, killed an estimated 10 to 15 million fish around last Aug. 20 and caused damage estimated at $500,000.

The recommendations would: Increase the strip mining bond required of operators to backfill all future operations, start a program for backfilling already abandoned strip mines, reduce the forfeiture time limit of strip mining bonds, to deep mine filling, promote sealing of worked out areas in active deep mines, study further mining problems relative to stream pollution and promote support for the clean streams program in the West Branch Susquehanna area.

PROMISE MORE AIR RAID TESTS
HARRISBURG (AP)—New air raid alert tests were promised today following Pennsylvania's first statewide air alert in seven years.

Although civil defense officials here appraised the seven-minute alert Wednesday as "highly successful" in many areas they said it disclosed "several weaknesses."

"There will be additional tests in Pennsylvania periodically from here on out," said Richard Gerstell, state civil defense director.

Gerstell cited seven counties for good work in complying with the alert during which pedestrians were to take cover and automobile drivers were to pull to the side of the street or road until the all-clear was sounded.

These counties included Bucks, Dauphin, Erie, Lancaster, Luzerne, Blair and Westmoreland.

On the other hand, the state's largest city-county, Philadelphia, was listed as putting up a poor showing. Main thoroughfares there remained jammed with both motorists and pedestrians, Gerstell said.

The chances of rolling a seven in dice are one in six.

COURT RULES ON "SUBVERSIVES"

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals ruled Thursday that mere membership in an organization listed by the attorney general as subversive is insufficient for firing a government worker.

If the worker is to be fired, the court held, there must be in addition to such membership a finding of reasonable grounds for disloyalty.

The court ruled in a case involving a decorated, legless World War II veteran, James Kutcher of Newark, N. J. It held that Carl R. Gray, administrator of veterans affairs, failed to make a finding of reasonable grounds for disloyalty in firing Kutcher.

The court set aside an order removing Kutcher from the VA payroll, but left stand an order suspending pending determination by Gray "of the ultimate issue as to whether or not the evidence reasonable grounds exist for belief that Kutcher is disloyal to the government of the United States."

Kutcher admitted membership in the Socialist Workers party, generally described as the Trotsky wing of the Communist party. This organization has been described by the attorney general as seeking "to alter the form of the government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

Kutcher lost both his legs while serving as an infantryman in Italy in 1943.

Pittsburgh Paper Has Endorsed Ike
PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, politically independent morning newspaper, has endorsed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for president, declaring editorially "there are compelling reasons for a change which go much deeper than the campaign oratory."

The Post-Gazette said it believes "the time has come for a change in our domestic affairs if we are to hold to the traditional middle road . . . and the time has come for a change in the conduct of our foreign affairs if the United States is to settle down and exercise its world leadership wisely . . ."

TRUMAN TALKS ROUGH AGAIN ON NEW TOUR

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP)—President Truman declared today that Dwight D. Eisenhower "appears to be willing to undermine our safety if that will get him elected president."

He asserted that the GOP presidential nominee "is apparently suggesting that we pull our troops out of Korea and let the South Koreans do all the fighting."

The President went on to say, in a campaign address prepared for delivery at Lawrence, Mass., during the second day of a train and automobile stumping tour of New England:

In New England
"I've never seen anything cheaper in politics. We can not do what he suggested—without appeasing communism in Korea—and he knows it."

The President pushed his drive for Democratic votes in New Hampshire and Massachusetts with increasing intensity after speeches yesterday denouncing GOP criticism of his administration as "misrepresented" and "so many lies."

Encouraged by large and friendly crowds in Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, he set up another heavy schedule of talks taking him into Boston for a major speech at 9:30 p.m., EST, in Symphony Hall.

50,000 At Hartford
The President drew about 50,000 in Hartford, capital city of Connecticut, 10,000 each in the Massachusetts cities of Worcester and Springfield; and police estimated 25,000 cheered him on his way through the streets of Manchester, N. H.

Truman chose Clinton, Mass., home town of his appointments secretary, Matthew J. Connelly, where thousands turned out along the railroad track, to give a rundown last night of members of his Cabinet and other top officers.

He told the crowd, in one of 15 speeches, that his "ability, if I have any," to make the presidency function, "has been, I think, a talent for picking the right man for the right place."

Praises His Men
He praised each of his Cabinet in turn, paid tribute to his White House staff and especially to Mutual Security Director W. Averell Harriman for what he said was his role in the Marshall Plan which "kept all of Western Europe from going Communist."

Dean Acheson, whom he praised as one of history's "greatest secretaries of state," also drew praise for his service as deputy chairman of the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization.

Catholic Bishop Addresses CEA Meet

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Archbishop John P. O'Hara of Philadelphia says men who believe in God have a clear notion of their duties to the state.

Bishop O'Hara, addressing the opening session of the Catholic Education Association of Pennsylvania's 32nd annual meeting, told 2,000 delegates yesterday:

"The individual owes the state more than allegiance. It is his duty as a citizen to direct it in the right course, to correct its defects and to set it back in the path of righteousness when it strays."

RED STOOGES RETAIN STALIN
MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Communist party named its new high command today and kept Joseph Stalin firmly in all the top jobs.

The party's new Central Committee announced election of a Presidium of 25 members and 11 alternates to replace the old Politburo and a 10-man Secretariat to supervise party administration.

Stalin was named head of both key groups. Also elected was a new chairman of the party Control Committee which has charge of party discipline.

The Presidium is more than twice the size of the old Politburo of 11 members and one alternate. Replacing the Politburo, it will direct the work of the Central

And the people who understand this Christian truth will be as conscientious about worshipping in Church as they are about their ploughing or their employment.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL.... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. 3 NEW MEMBERS ADDED BY CLUB

Mrs. Harold Sparver, Mrs. John F. Feaser Jr., and Mrs. C. Donald Bowers were accepted as members of the Woman's Club of Littlestown at the October meeting Wednesday. It was announced that the annual Girl Scout drive for funds will be held on Monday, October 27, at 6 p.m., and members of the club, which is the sponsoring organization of the Girl Scouts, were requested to volunteer to assist with the drive. Each solicitor will be accompanied by a Girl Scout.

Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, chairman of the finance committee, read a copy of the proposed budget for the 1952-1953 club year which was adopted by the club. The budget provides $67 for federation dues; $366 for general expenses; $202 for benevolence, and $75 in the contingent fund, a total of $710. The first fund raising event for the club will take place on Friday, when a food sale will be held beginning at 3:30 o'clock in the Annie Swope property on E. King St. There will be sandwiches and soups, in addition to the baked goods. Mrs. Potter announced that this will be the only event when the club members will be asked to donate during this year. A bazaar table will also be conducted by Mrs. Chester S. Byers. Members of the finance committee, which includes Mrs. Potter, Mrs. George DeHoff, Mrs. James Dutterer, Mrs. Beaven Hanlon, Mrs.

Charles Benner, Mrs. Joseph R. Riden and Mrs. Edvard T. Richardson Sr., will pick up contributions, if contacted prior to 1 o'clock on Friday. Donations may be taken to the storeroom any time after 2 p.m.

Project For Year Delayed
Mrs. Anna B. Leach reported on the library project which had been discussed at the September meeting, stating that the room occupied by Leroy W. Bish, tax collector, would be available for use as a library, since the nights that he would be there and the night the library is open would not conflict. Edward H. Brown, owner of the building, also agreed to have it used as a library. Mrs. Charles E. Treasurer reported on the band instrument project which had also been discussed; reading a list of the instruments needed and their price, as submitted by the director, Paul A. Harner. Final decision on the project for the year was tabled until the November meeting.

Banquet Nov. 5

The annual fall banquet will be held on Wednesday, November 5, at 6:30 o'clock at Redeemer's Reformed Church social hall. Reservations, which are $1.50 per plate, should be in the hands of the Education Committee, which is in charge of arrangements, by November 3. The committee includes Mrs. Garnet E. Schellhase, chairman, Mrs. Anna B. Leach, Mrs. Claude White, Mrs. William Wilt, Mrs. George Bemiller, Mrs. Richard Matland, Mrs. Edna Geiselman and Mrs. William H. Dixon. A contribution of $25 was voted to the Littlestown unit of the Warmer Hospital.

At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served by the hostess committee, composed of Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, chairman, Mrs. Harry M. Badders, Mrs. Walter Crouse, Mrs. John Kindig, Mrs. Edwin Stavely and Mrs. Vernon Snyder. The program committee for the evening, in addition to the chairman, included Mrs. Naomi Schwartz, Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, Mrs. Maurice Rider, Miss Louise Dutterer, Mrs. Paul Bowman and Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse.

The next meeting on November 19 will be held in St. Aloysius Hall, when Miss Joan Overholt of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg, will demonstrate "Capsule Cooking." The meeting will be open to the public.

SCHEIVERT'S TO SHOW NEW CARS

The 1953 Kaiser automobile and the 1953 Henry J are being introduced today at Scheivert's Garage, along the Littlestown-Westminster road, local Kaiser-Frazer dealer. The public is invited to visit the showrooms at Scheivert's Garage to view these new models, which have improved performance and extensive styling changes throughout.

The Kaiser is unchanged in the new Deluxe and Manhattan models and has the basic body styling which has won an unprecedented number of international styling awards in the last two years. However, in the 1953 Kaiser there is the sweeping front-to-rear body lines which have been given new emphasis with the addition of chrome moldings. Higher torque and horsepower ratings, achieved without sacrifice of fuel economy, are new engine features. The horsepower of the high compression, six-cylinder Kaiser engines has been stepped up from 115 to 120.

Described as the world's first "safety-first" car, the Kaiser for 1953 continues the passenger safety features of previous models with additional padding on the cushioned instrument panel crash pad. In the Deluxe model, seven upholstery color combinations can be harmonized with a range of ten body colors. In the Manhattan series, the cars are finished in six upholstery styles which harmonize with 14 monotone and two tone body colors. The new '53 Kaisers are equipped with many new electrical features.

The Henry J is the lowest price of any standard American automobile. The 1953 Corsair and Corsair Deluxe sedans will offer new high balance of performance, economy and safety achieved through 40 en-

Mechanical Heart Keeps Man Alive 50 Min. For Operation

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

AP Science Reporter

DETROIT (AP)—A successful mechanical heart, to give human hearts a holiday, was announced today.

For 50 minutes, the amazing little machine pumped a man's blood through his body.

Rumbling like a quiet washing machine, it by-passed the left side of his heart. It detoured the blood coming from his lungs, and pulsed it back into his arteries.

Used In Dogs First

Empty of blood, with no work to do, the still-beating heart was opened to repair a faulty valve.

The man, 41, and not identified, is alive and well today, three months after the historic operation July 3.

Only this one human success was announced—but with a hint it has worked on other persons since.

In dogs, this same pump has been rigged to by-pass both sides of the heart, putting the whole heart on temporary vacation.

In dogs also it's been combined

IRAN BREAKS WITH BRITAIN, PREMIER SAYS

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Premier Mohammad Mossadegh Thursday broadcast to the nation an announcement that his government is “unfortunately obliged to break diplomatic relations with Britain.”

The message, originally intended for the Majlis but not read because a quorum did not attend, said the reason for the step was that “the British government has so far prevented our reaching an agreement” on the oil dispute.

Mossadegh told the people that breaking diplomatic relations would not mean breaking “the bonds of friendship” between the two nations, “because the Iranian nation always has looked with respect to the British nation, and hopes that the authorities of that government also will give more attention to the realities of the present world situation and the awakening of nations and will forget the attitude it so far has shown, conforming its policies to the present world situation.”

Notify Britain

Foreign Minister Hossein Fattemi said notice of the Iranian decision would be delivered to the British immediately after the broadcast.

Mossadegh had threatened such a break if his terms for settling the bitter oil dispute were not met. Britain rejected those terms as “unreasonable and unacceptable” in a note delivered Tuesday. The British indicated they were standing pat on the joint settlement proposal made Aug. 30 by Prime Minister Churchill and President Truman.

The new British note insisted the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. must have full compensation for its properties nationalized by Iran 18 months ago.

IKE STEPS UP HIS ATTACK ON ADMINISTRATION

By JAMES DEVLIN

En Route With Eisenhower (P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower campaigned on the Eastern Seaboard today after a stepped-up attack against the Truman administration and blasts at "godless communism."

With President Truman verbally slugging at him, the Republican presidential candidate is hitting back at the Democratic handling of foreign and domestic affairs during the past seven years.

Eisenhower was scheduled to travel today from New York to Wilmington, Del., by train and then work his way back in a motor caravan through New Jersey in his second visit to that state in two days.

Rays Tuman's Record

The general yesterday virtually ignored Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic presidential nominee, to rap Truman's record. He hit at spending, corruption, Korea and the lack of "a better peace."

He told a cheering crowd of 5,000 that filled the Paterson, N. J., armory that "the important point is that we have no pride in our government."

"We cannot," he said, "turn to our children and say, 'Those men and women up there represent all that is best in American public life.'"

"Sheer" Folly

"We have the record of the loss of China, the emergency action in Greece and in Turkey, and the airlift to save Berlin, and finally, Korea, which unhappily, still goes on."

Eisenhower said that then "we begin to look at what has happened to us here at home, and we see an expenditure program that, in the absence of a more reasonable explanation than we have yet had, appears reckless and extravagant to the point of sheer folly."

"We can't afford what we are spending and stay strong enough to lead the world toward peace," he said.

Drums Or Hate

"Eisenhower interrupted his New Jersey campaign tour to tell the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation dinner in New York last night that the recent Communist Congress in Moscow presented a 'deadly challenge' to the free world."

"The drums of Soviet hate are still rolling for the same old enemy," Eisenhower said. "America is still marked with indelible investiture as communism's final and greatest victim-to-be."

FIVE PADDLED BY PRINCIPAL

IRWIN, Pa. (P)—A junior high school principal says he paddled five girls "because I thought it might wake them up."

The principal, Lester Kleckner, was criticized by parents of the girls who attend Manor Junior High School in Irwin.

The parents told the school board the girls were paddled last week because they disobeyed Kleckner's instructions to take a direct route to school and avoid the business district.

Kleckner said he paddled the five pupils after discovering it was the third offense for three of them "and I thought it was time to take some action besides talking."

Apologizes To One

The parents of one of the girls said she did not disobey the instruction and Kleckner later apologized, but added "it was too late then."

The school board instructed Asst. Supt. Theodore Fullerton to prepare a set of disciplinary regulations that would prohibit teachers and principals from administering corporal punishment without his approval.

Kleckner said there has been no school board orders against a principal administering a paddling when he believed it was necessary.

Fullerton said the disciplinary regulations will be presented to the board for approval at the next meeting. No action has been taken against Kleckner.

Urges Home Solution Of Labor Problems

EASTON, Pa. (P)—Labor and management must strive to solve their problems at home instead of going to the federal government, says Cyrus S. Ching.

The 76-year-old former head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service outlined what he called a "community level program" on Wednesday at the closing session of the Pennsylvania League of Third Class Cities.

"There has been no definite solution to the problem of solving labor disputes," he said. However he thinks a "great step forward" would be the creation of "committees in smaller communities like your third class cities where labor leaders and management representatives could sit down as a committee together to iron out their labor troubles."

Ching's talk followed the election of Kendig C. Bare, mayor of Lancaster, as president of the league for the next term. His name was the only one proposed and his selection was unanimous.

Abandoned Well Blows In And Out

RENOVO, Pa. (P)—Thousands of dollars are being spent here daily to search for natural gas but Mrs. Fella Kelley had a well blow in Wednesday without lifting a finger. An old well, abandoned nearly 20 years ago, suddenly blew in a short distance from her farm home at nearby Hammersley Forks. It sputtered for several hours, shooting valuable natural gas into the air.

Then it blew itself out just as suddenly and mysteriously as it came in.

The only explanation advanced by veteran natural gas men was that water had collected under the 1,200-foot well and pushed a small pocket of gas up the well shaft.

You CAN Have All Four!

Before You Buy Your Dream Home, Be Sure It Has These Four Basic Ingredients Required By The Experts:

1.—GOOD MATERIALS:

Trouble always costs more than quality—Don't go broke paying the high repair and maintenance cost required by poor materials.

2.—GOOD WORKMANSHIP:

Look with pride at joints that fit and surfaces that are level and square. Life will be pleasant in a home whose appearance says, "The craftsmen who built me took pride in their work."

3.—GOOD DESIGN:

Be sure the home you buy is as modern as tomorrow in step-saving efficiency, and embodies the beauty of a modern exterior in the charm of the traditional for enduring good taste.

4.—GOOD LOCATION:

Protect your investment, and insure convenience and happiness by making your home in the right place. ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SITE: Is the land high and well-drained? Are sewer, water, gas and electricity in or available without further expense to me? Will I have the advantages of sidewalks, curbs and good streets? Is the location convenient to the business district, schools, churches, recreation area, etc.? Will there be smoke, smells, heavy traffic or other nuisances nearby? Is the surrounding land protected by restrictions that will keep the neighborhood desirable, thereby insuring pleasant surroundings and protecting my investment? Will my neighbor's house look like mine, or will all the homes in the neighborhood be individuals?

CURBING TRADE WITH RUSSIA IS HUGE PROBLEM

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON — The word "trade" is about as unemotional as any in the language, which is why, perhaps, nothing much has been said about it in his presidential campaign although the campaign has been full of talk about dealing with Russia.

And trade with Russia, or rather the lack of it, is one of the major weapons in the cold war, as W. Averell Harriman, director of the Mutual Security Agency, pointed out in a report this week. His organization is successor to the old Marshall Plan.

The latter was created to give economic help to Europe which, had it remained flat and broke, might have been taken over by Russia without firing a shot.

It might seem that, since this country and its allies were in a cold war with Russia, and both sides were building up their armaments which might be used any day in a shooting war, all trade would cease between the West and Russia.

Curb Aid To Reds
It might seem ridiculous that any country allied with the U. S. or receiving help from this country would at the same time be trading with Russia. But in his report Harriman said "cutting off trade entirely would harm our common defense effort more than it harms the potential aggressor."

He said other non-Communist countries receive from the Soviet bloc "commodities that are extremely valuable to their own defense efforts and economic stability on which their defense is based."

But while some kind of trade with Russia might be all right—trade in items that didn't help Russia's war machine—this country had the problem of being sure

Russia didn't get war materials from other western sources.
Control Shipments
So the U. S. had to work out arrangements with the countries getting American help to control shipments to Russia. To be doubly sure about it, Congress passed a law—called the Battle Act—making it mandatory for this country to shut off any aid to a country exporting war goods to Russia.

This same law also said American help to any country should be shut off—unless the President decided otherwise—if it exported to Russia materials of strategic value—like petroleum and certain kinds of transportation equipment—that could be used to produce war goods.

Harriman said that for several years the important free world nations "have refused without any exception the shipment to the Soviet bloc of arms, ammunition, implements of war, or atomic energy materials."

Keeps Control Reins
But this country and its allies weren't able to draw up a list of items which couldn't go to Russia and stop there. The list is under steady examination and revision to meet changing situations involving both the West and Russia.

And yesterday—as if telling this country they could get along fine in war production no matter what we did about controlling trade with them—the Russians said they could convert their peacetime industry to a war basis in a short time and turn out everything needed for their Army and Navy.

In his report Harriman made it clear this country didn't expect to stop Russia's war production—since it has most of the basic raw material it needs. But he said he did think export controls might slow it up. At least, the controls won't help it.

QUIT REDS AFTER HE GOT $3,800 FOR SABOTAGE

PHILADELPHIA — A labor organizer told the House un-American Activities committee meeting here that he quit the Communist party in 1951 after he was given a sabotage plan and a $3,800 fund in the event of war between the U. S. and Russia.

Samuel J. Di Maria was one of several witnesses appearing before the House group Wednesday during the third day of a week-long session.

The 37-year-old CIO-Electrical Union organizer told the congressional probers he left the Communist party in the spring of 1951 because "I would never engage in action detrimental to my country."

Given $3,800
Di Maria said he was given money from time to time—an eventual total of $3,800—by Abe Sokolov, operator of a Philadelphia quilt business.

Di Maria, who said he first joined the Communist party in 1939, said Sokolov listed the steps U. S. Reds must take in the event of a war with the Soviet Union.

Sokolov followed Di Maria on the stand Wednesday and refused to answer virtually all questions put to him, including those asking confirmation or denial of Di Maria's charges. Sokolov said he was declining to testify under the Fifth Amendment.

28 Clubs In Eastern Pa.
Di Maria said that he was told American communists were instructed to be prepared to organize an apparatus to fight the U. S. war policy; foment strikes in the defense industries and circulate pamphlets advising the American people the war was opposed to their best interests.

Di Maria said that he joined the Communist party in 1939 while he was associated with the WPA, adding that he was not recruited into the party by anyone connected with the government agency.

He said there were 28 Communist clubs in Eastern Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia, the Anthracite region, the Lehigh-Bucks County area, and Chester, Pa., as well as in Wilmington, Del.

"Virgin's Parade" Grooms Duchess

SIBU, Sarawak — A traditional "virgin's parade" of bare-breasted beauties greeted the Duchess of Kent Thursday on her arrival in this jungle-surrounded interior town of the land of the white rajahs.

The feminine parade—a dozen native girls—awaited the duchess at the gate of the residency. They were decked with jingling corselets of dangling silver coins, bright beaded collars, gay sarongs and huge silver headresses. But following custom, most had left the bosom bare.

It was the most interesting day of the 10-day tour by the duchess and her 16-year-old son, the first British royally ever to visit Sarawak. Now a crown colony, the North Borneo territory was ruled by Britain's Brooke family until the Japanese occupation.

The party flew here from the capital, Kuching, by flying boat.

STEVENSON IS "OWN MAN" IN HUMBLE MOOD

By JACK BELL
SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Gov. Adlai Stevenson declared today that the "best chance for a just and peaceful world" hinges on the results of next month's election.

Assuming a humble role in his battle with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, the Illinois governor said in an address prepared for an early morning rally here that "no man on earth can truly measure up to the awful responsibilities of the presidency."

But while he said he was humble in the face of the fact that the voters might make him the next president, Stevenson said he is not uncertain, Stevenson said he is not uncertain, Stevenson said he is not uncertain, Stevenson said he is not uncertain.

"I'm My Own Man"
"At least my mind is my own mind and I am my own man," he declared in an obvious reference to his charges that Eisenhower has surrendered leadership.

in the Republican party to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Asserting that the contest between the two major political parties this year involves "not just your prosperity but the best chance for a just and peaceful world," Stevenson declared:

"I know that unless we reject the Republican ideas of isolationism, we will lose the free world—and with it our struggle for peace."

Works In California
The Democratic nominee was winding up in San Diego a crucial campaign for California's vital 32 electoral votes. His next stop in today's crowded schedule was Fort Worth, Tex., after a six-hour flight eastward. From there, Stevenson planned to go to Grand Prairie and thence to Dallas for a major speech tonight.

In San Diego, the Illinois governor continued his vigorous assault on Eisenhower as a "disappointing" candidate who has given his endorsement "to the whole isolationist team" of Republicans.

"I know for a fact that in doing so, he has disappointed a lot of Republicans, disappointed them bitterly," Stevenson declared.

Says His Is Uphill Battle
He has said previously that Eisenhower is widely known and that he, Stevenson, faces an uphill battle in getting the public acquainted with his views on major issues of the day.

But he said he feels the people are "deeply wise" and "they know it was the Democratic party that turned back both depression and the enemies of freedom—and the people know their future and their

A noisy audience which chanted "We want Stevenson," practically tore down the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles last night when Stevenson greeted the demonstration with:

"Not Hard To Get"
"I'm delighted you want me so much, but I'm not that hard to get."

Before his personal appearance before the San Diego crowd, Stevenson said in a studio radio and television broadcast that the turning point in the struggle for world peace came when President Truman decided to send American forces into Korea.

The Communist invasion of that country, the Democratic nominee said, was no isolated incident but a "part of the whole world struggle."

Stevenson told the Los Angeles crowd that America has reached its "rendezvous with destiny."

RED FIREWORKS ARE EXPECTED IN U.N. TODAY

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Russia's Andrei Vishinsky kept the United Nations waiting today for the Red fireworks he is expected to touch off in replying to U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson's plea for a concerted U.N. effort to end the Korean War.

The Soviet foreign minister was not scheduled to speak today, and he told newsmen he did not know when he would address the General Assembly.

"Maybe never," he added with a wry grin to the journalists.

Poland Leads List

Poland was the first Iron Curtain country listed for the assembly's general debate today, drawing fourth place in a tentative lineup of five countries to speak. But Polish Foreign Minister Stanislaw Skrzewski was not expected to steal Vishinsky's thunder by replying to the major American foreign policy speech Acheson made to the assembly yesterday.

Acheson in his speech yesterday urged "every member of the United Nations . . . to support the common action in Korea" and pledged a fight to the finish against aggression.

PROTEST STRIKE OF 150,000 OF MINER WIDENS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A protest strike of 150,000 miners crept through the nation's coal fields and producers pressed for price increases today as the Wage Stabilization Board, plagued by dissension, scheduled another attempt to decide the legality of the recent soft coal pay boost.

Price officials said the Office of Price Stabilization was awaiting WSB action before considering officially the many requests received from producers for a ceiling price increase.

Labor members of the WSB, who angrily rejected a "suggestion" from Economic Stabilizer Roger Putnam that the WSB postpone its study of the case for several days, were ready to give their approval to the $1.90-a-day wage boost.

Await WSB Okay

The increase, negotiated by John L. Lewis last month, cannot be paid until the WSB gives its approval because it is nearly twice as high as that automatically approvable under WSB cost-of-living regulations.

But labor members of the WSB, which is composed of labor, industry and public members, have argued that other wage rules justify the increase. They say it is neither inflationary nor destabilizing.

Number May Grow

Industry members, however, firmly reject that thesis. They say they have seen no evidence to indicate the pay raise is within existing ceilings.

Industry, meanwhile, pressed for either a lifting of ceilings, or an increase, with the OPS maintaining a "wait and see" attitude pending outcome of the WSB ruling.

The price officials said a preliminary survey has indicated that the cost to producers of the new contract will run 40 cents per ton or better on the average. This includes the 10 cents per ton increase in royalty payments to the miners welfare fund.

Should the WSB fail to approve the contract within the next few days the number of idle miners is certain to swell and may shut off up to 80 per cent of the nation's soft coal production.

Lewis bargains for more than 350,000 bituminous miners. The last time they struck was in the long dispute over the 1949 contract negotiations.

There is at least one mountain peak 20,000 feet tall in the Antarkctic continent.

The great pyramid of Cheops in Egypt is the only survivor among the seven wonders of the ancient world.

and to restore peace and security to Korea," Acheson declared.

"We shall stop fighting when an armistice on just terms has been achieved. And we shall not allow faint-heartedness or recklessness to defeat our cause, which is to defend peace."

The secretary asked for more help—troops, food, clothing, material and money—for the U. N. forces.

"We must convince the aggressor," he declared, "that continued fighting in Korea will cost him more than he can gain."
